SHOT GUN BRIGADE TO AROUSE OGDEN EARLY ON THE MORNING OF NOVEMBER 11, SAY LEGIONITES

Ogdenites who endeavor to sleep on the morning of November 11 had better move far from the city limits, according to members of the American Legion. The big program for Armistice day is being rapidly completed, and with the events being added daily the fans will have opportunity of seeing one of the best cards of events ever staged here.

A "shot" gun brigade is being organized and these men, all members of the organization, expect to wake the thousands from "slumber" during the few small hours and unless their plans fail to mature, Ogdenites will be out of bed on that morn, prepared for a day of days.

Flying Stars Coming.
C. O. Prest, the flying star, who is here with his large plane, signified his intention of being in Ogden on Armistice day this morning. Prest has had ten years of experience and is expected to be one of the big attractions on that day. He will carry passengers during the entire day from Washington Heights flying field and will carry bombs which will explode in the air.

H. E. Ellison, who was in Ogden a few days ago, passed through the city today en route to Denver, where he will use every effort in completing arrangements for Carl Johnson to fly here during the gala celebration. Johnson was one of the best flyers in the service and is recognized throughout the United States as one of America's best.

The hum of the aviation motors will attract considerable attention and the many many stunts prepared for the fans by Johnson and Prest should be thrillers. Both John and Prest have world-wide reputations and should be able to give Ogdenites a real treat.

Johnson is flying a de Havilland while Prest has a large three-passenger plane.

Prest Delayed by Storm.
Prest has been delayed in Ogden for several days due to the unfavorable weather conditions, but will depart for Salt Lake tomorrow in company with his wife, who is due to arrive in Ogden today from Montana.
Mrs. Prest will be the first woman that has ever made the trip from Ogden to Salt Lake in the air. Prest was scheduled to leave for Pocatello and other points in Idaho, but on account of the storms in that section he has cancelled the trip.

After the celebration in Ogden on Armistice day, Johnson will attempt a flight to San Diego and from that station to San Francisco, thence to Ogden and then to Denver.

With these two added features to the program, the boys of the American Legion have started the ball rolling with a vim and their motto is, "Something doing every minute."

Four hundred large posters advertising the entire events of that date have been printed by the local legion and will be distributed throughout the state by members of the organization. The first event is scheduled to start at 5 o'clock in the morning while taps will be played in the wee small hours of the morning of November 12.

Heart will meet at the home of Mrs. W.
J. Dermody, 1005 Twenty-fourth street, Wednesday, October 29.

Spanish War Auxiliary
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans will meet at the home of Mrs. Hansen, 3250 Pacific avenue. The friends of the auxiliary will be entertained.

Leave For Coast.
Mr. W. J. Mulick and two children, Elizabeth and Charles left Ogden yesterday to spend the winter on the Pacific Coast. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mulick's mother, Mrs. E. H.
Roberts.

L. A. to O. R. C.
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R.
C. will hold a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the L. O.
O. F. Hall. All members are urged to be present.

SCALDED BY FRIENDS.

On Thursday, Halloween day, while surrounded by friends and admirers, Chili Bean will be suddenly plunged into a kettle of boiling water. To prove that scalding, boiling water and extreme heat is not injurious to the constitution of Chili Bean and associates they will be withdrawn Thursday evening at the Thirteenth ward hall and served to the many friends of the Sunday school who will be gaily costumed in Halloween attire. We are informed that Chili Bean was vaccinated against the high price germ, but the joy he got him at the same time the contagion broke out among the happy people of the ward. Those attending must bring an appetite and pocket book, everything else will be furnished by the Ghosts. This particular ward is famous for its ability to spread joy and this occasion will be no exception.

Deaths and Funerals

Funeral—Mrs. Maria Friese, formerly of Ogden, died yesterday at the home of her son, Victor Friese, Butte, Montana.
She was 77 years old. Mrs. Friese is survived by Mrs. E. Conliffe, Salt Lake; Oscar L. Friese of San Francisco and Henry G. Friese of Ogden. The body will be brought to Ogden and taken in charge by Lindquist's.

SCOFIELD—Funeral services for William Henry Scofield will be held in the Third Ward meeting house tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bishop M. R.
Richardson officiating. The casket will be open at the home, 147 Twenty-second street this afternoon and evening and tomorrow until time of services.

FURS AND LACE

Nothing could be richer in conception than the winter street suit sketched today. It is made of velour de laine in the wonderful new color called bronze citron.
The fur pockets, collar, cuffs, muff and hat are of gray squirrel. The little close-fitting tunic is relieved with a trim of French velvet.

LUNCHEON AT THE SCOUTS' PAPER IS TO WEBER CLUB FOR OGDEN VISITOR

At the luncheon of the Ogden Publicity bureau, Warren L. Wattis entertained Roy Godfrey Matthews and E.
Telford Erickson, delegate of the Albanian federation at the Paris peace conference and at present representing that affairs of that people at Washington.

In conversation, Mr. Erickson explained to the guests that the Albanian people have a distinct claim to be treated as a separate and distinct nation, although for over two hundred years they have had to suffer the domination of a foreign power. He speaks in glowing terms of the national characteristics of the people whose word of honor is sacred and whose ideal of home life can not be excelled anywhere in the world. It was a surprise to his hearers when Mr. Erickson explained that there are some fifty thousand Albanian residents in this country and that the population of their native country at the present time is about two and one-half millions. Regret was expressed that time had not been available for the gathering together of a large crowd of business men to hear Mr. Erickson speak of "Albania at the Peace Conference."

clubs about the city.

MAKE INITIAL APPEARANCE

Threatening to surpass the local press and to establish lively competition, "The Ogden Scout," publication for the Boy Scouts of this city, will make its initial appearance a week from tomorrow.

Alvin Leishman is in charge of the publication at present, and reporters from each troop in the city will be elected. All matter pertaining to scouting in or out of doors, will be included in the scout paper. The publication, which at present is under the auspices of Troop Thirteen, will later be taken over by the local scout headquarters as the official paper. Exchanges will be made with other scout papers and it is forecast that the paper will be a success.

The Merchants of Ogden have passed favorably on the proposition and the boys have experienced no difficulty in procuring financial support for their early issues.

The first publication will have a circulation of 500 and will be increased to 1000 soon after the paper has started. The publication will be a weekly periodical and will contain articles written by out-of-doors experts of the forestry service and also articles prepared for the paper by various instructors at colleges throughout the state.

Horse Marines Are No Longer Standing Joke

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The old joke about horse marines has gone into the discard along with the memory of Captain Jinks.

Nearly every marine is able to perform the duties of a cavalryman when the occasion demands, the mounted detachments of marines are now on duty in Haiti, China and elsewhere.
The sea soldiers do some plain and fancy riding at their school of equitation, conducted by the marine corps at Quantico, near here, and students are given a course of lectures on horsemanship.

As a demonstration of their skill, horse marines competed in the rodeo, held recently at San Francisco, and carried off several prizes.

LIFE

The grieving and the hurt of life Are often hard to bear,
And every hour of bitter strife Is tinged with despair.
There's much of pain and much of woe For every man to meet, Life's burdens weary us, but Oh,
Its happy days are sweet.

Sometimes the dismal days seem long, Sometimes our hearts are sad;
We wonder as we hear their song What makes the robins glad.
But when our skies grow blue once more
And we have dried our tears, When joy is dancing round the door, How bright the sun appears!

When enemies our path beset And we must bear their blows;
When hate and envy make us fret,
The world seems filled with foes.
Then we would shun the haunts of men And go where solitude ends, But life is all worth while again When we are with our friends.

Life's burdens oft are hard to bear But all its joys are sweet;
Along the dreary lanes of care Men walk with lagging feet.
They win beneath the hurt and pain Which fate to all must give,
But when the laughter rings again, How good it seems to live!

1000 ALIENS AFFECTED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Only 1000 aliens will be affected by Secretary Daniels' order requiring that aliens be discharged before American citizens in connection with reduction of navy yard civilian personnel, navy department officials said. Lack of funds is expected to cause a considerable reduction in navy yard forces this winter.

SERVES ALL OCCASIONS

For the woman who wishes to make one suit serve all occasions the model sketched above is interesting. Made up in one of the new shades of brown, doretyne with deep collar and cuffs of skunk, the possessor of this garment may feel equally well dressed morning, afternoon, or evening.

KING IN THE SENATE

Queen Looks Down on Scene; Unprecedented in American History.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Greeted as "our friend, our defender and our ally," King Albert of the Belgians stood today before the senate of the United States and before the house of representatives to voice the main purpose of his long voyage to American shores—the expression of Belgium's gratitude for American aid during the war.

For the first time in history the crowned head of a monarchical government was an honored guest in the legislative halls of the foremost democracy of the world. Beside him stood the Duke of Brabant, his son, successor to the Belgian throne, and from her place in the gallery, Queen Elizabeth looked down upon a scene unprecedented in American history.
Cheers and a thunder of applauding rang through the staid chamber of the senate as the king entered, escorted by Senator Lodge, while Senator Hitchcock walked beside Prince Leopold. Queen Elizabeth and Mrs. Mas-shall, wife of the vice president, entered the executive gallery at the same moment.

King Albert was seated beside Senator Cummins, presiding over the senate, with the youthful prince at his right. Senate and galleries rose and cheered again when Senator Cummins presented the king, paying tribute to the high courage of the man who had led the heroic little kingdom in its struggle against a mighty foe.

In his reply the king spoke slowly and in quaintly accented English, reading from manuscript written by him in long hand. There was absolute silence while he spoke, but a sudden demonstration of approval came from floor and galleries when he finished.

After his address the king and the prince were introduced to the members of the senate by Senator Lodge.
Senator Warren of Wyoming, father-in-law of General Pershing, was the first to greet him.

The queen was first to appear on the house side. Members rose and applauded as she entered the executive gallery.

The formal announcement of the king's coming was drowned in a wave of applause as he was recognized at the door. When he walked down the aisle, escorted by former Speaker Champ Clark, there was a roar of cheers. He was greeted by Speaker Gillett beside whom he took his seat.

In his address to the house King Albert paid glowing tribute to the valour of American soldiers and sailors whose aid, he said, had turned the scale to the victors in the great war.

Members rose and applauded when he had finished and the king and his son then greeted the representatives personally while the queen stood in the gallery to watch.

The formal visit to the capital is but a little more than an hour after there the king went to be decorated with the American distinguished service medal.

LIVESTOCK SHOW IS TO HAVE BIG FEATURES

Three days of entertainment have been arranged for the executive committee of the Ogden Livestock show for the visitors during their stay here.
On Thursday evening, January 8, 1920, hambra theatre, where the visiting stockmen will be the guests. The following night the contest will be at the Berthana and on Saturday evening a banquet will be held at the Weber Fourteen loving cups have been selected by the executive committee of the Ogden Livestock show for prizes for the show which will be held here in January. One of the trophies will be donated by Governor Simon Bamber-ger, while a small cup will be donated to the boy or girl who keeps the best record chart during the show. The and Girls' club in order to be eligible for the prize.

HIRED WORKERS ARE REPORTED OVER THE CITY

A report comes to the Standard office that hired workers are appearing in the political field and are getting from house to house.
This is against the purity of election laws and carries with it a heavy penalty.

Voters are requested to call up the Standard, telephone 421, and report the presence of those hired workers.
